DAY FOR SELLING PLATERS

NEW ORLEANS RACING GIVEN OVER TO THEM WITH ENTERTAINING RESULTS.

Momentum Improves Quickly and Defeats Grimaldi and Charlie Eastman-Notter Rides Five Winners Out of Six Mounts-Owners Leaving.

New Orleans, La., March 27.—Today's card, a typical consolation one, served to bring together the poorer grade of horses that have been racing here this winter, and a record number of starters for one day went to the post. The sport, despite the big fields which caused much crowding, resulted in close finishes, and as the preferred ones in the speculation proved successful in most instances the talent had the better of their financial argument with the layers. Jockey Notter and his employer, C. R. Ellison, enjoyed their banner day of the season. The former piloted five winners, and the blonde plunger is reported to have cleared a big sum by the rider's successes.

Notter's first success came in the opening race when Pinion led a good band of youngsters to the finish. The surprise in the race was the suddenly improved showing of Lillian Ray, which was pressing the winner closely at the finish.

Wausau, in the second race, was only slightly in less esteem than Risk. The pair had it between them almost for the entire trip, with Wausau winning, which was largely due to the listless ride Nicol put up on the favorite.

Frontenac was much the best of those that started in the third race and won as Notter pleased, Bestrong lasting long enough to save second place from Ben Double.

In contrast to his effort on Risk, Nicol gave a masterful exhibition on Momentum and led a fairly good band of sprinters to the finish in the fourth. Grimaldi and Charlie Eastman fought it out for second place, which the former finally secured. The showing of R. C. Rann in the race was disappointing and an acang critics at once put him down as a poor Kentucky Derby possibility.

Grenade had an easy time in winning the fifth race from the poorly ridden and much interfered with Gild. King Cole, during the early stages of the race, threatened to take the purse by running kindly and leading by a good margin, but in the stretch run his old rogarishness asserted itself and, by boring out and sulising, he allowed Grenade and Gild to finish in front

AMERICAN HORSE WINS GRAND NATIONAL

Liverpool, England, March 27.—The Grand National Steeplechase, the greatest cross-country race in the world, worth 3,000 sovereigns and a trophy valued at 125 sovereigns, was run today over the Grand National course of four miles and 856 yards, and won by Major F. Douglas-Pennant's ten-year-old chestnut gelding. Rubio, by Star Ruby—La To-quera, by ten lengths. Mr. William Cooper's six-year-old bay mare, Mattie Macgregor, by Evan Macgregor—Ju, was second, and Mr. P. Whitaker's eleven-year-old chestnut gelding, Lawyer III., by Broxton—Solon, was third.

The betting on the winner was 66 to 1 against; on Mattie Macgregor 25 to 1 against, and on Lawyer III., 100 to 7 against.

The race was notable for the number of favorites that failed to take all of the difficult jumps marking the course, a circumstance that allowed an outsider to capture the blue ribbon of steeple-chasing. The interest of Americans was centered in the performances of Foxhall P. Keene's two candidates in the foremost steeplechase race of the world, which were the ten-year-old chestnut mare, Chorus, by Chorister—Helena, by Mortemer, and the nine-year-old bay gelding, Prophet, by Horoscope—Royal Nun, but neither of them was a contender.

The winner was the first horse bred in the United States to win the race. Rubio was bred by James B. Haggin, foremost of American breeders, at his Rancho Del Paso establishment at Sacramento, California, in 1898. Rubio was sired by Star Ruby, which was bred by the Duke of Westminster, and after making two starts in the colors of his breeder, in the Stockbridge Foal Stakes and the Rous Memorial Stakes, in both of which he was unplaced, was then sent to the United States, where he became a great racer, winning among many others the Thornton Stakes, at four miles. A full brother to Rubio, Sombrero, was also a good race horse, winning the California Derby, the Ruffalo Derby and other races, and is now a stallion in Elmendorf Stud.

Rubio never raced in America, and made his first start under colors at the November, 1906, meeting at Kempton Park, finishing third to Suden Rise and Denton in a two-mile steeplechase. At Hurst Park last year he was second to Canary II. in the three-mile Grange Steeplechase and followed it with the Towcester Handicap at the Grafton Hunt meeting. He was third to Armature and Ashton in the Nottingham Handicap Steeplechase, and again finished third to Springbok and Paddy Maher in the Grand Sefton of two miles, seven furlongs and 110 yards, over the Liverpool course November 7 last.

BOOGER RED WINS IN SENSATIONAL FINISH. FORM OF NEW ORLEANS TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Takes the Feature from E. M. Fry by a Head-Lucky Lad Defeats Chimney Sweep

Los Angeles, Cal., March 27.—The Santa Anita Racing Association is certainly giving the poorer class of owners a chance to win a race in the closing days of the meeting, for the fields today were unwieldy and the selection of winners very difficult. The feature race of the day was the third, which was taken by Booger Red in a sensational drive from E. M. Fry, the former carrying the latter out in the closing strides. All Alone, which finished third, was backed by the eastern contingent, but tired near the end when his chances of winning seemed good.

The victories of Lucky Lad and Gentle Harry were a good break for the layers, many of whom recouped on their losses of the last few days.

Most of the owners her: who are going to race in the east this year are getting ready to ship and all of them will be on their way east by the end of next week.

James Donohue, the Chicago bookmaker, who has been here for several months, left for Chicago tonight by way of San Francisco.

There were nineteen bookmakers in line.

THOROUGHBREDS SENT TO ENGLAND.

Lexington, Ky., March 27.—Just before leaving here for Atlanta Thursday, Scott Hudson received advice of the arrival in London of thirty-eight thoroughbreds bought by him at New Orleans and exported for sale to huntsmen in England and on the Continent. These horses are all at or about sixteen hands and are robust in appearance, though not necessarily sound. The prices paid for them ranged from $50 to $300. In ages they range from three to seven years. For further racing purposes in this country they were practically worthless and since the greatest number are geldings they, of course, have no value as breeding stock. It can be truly said that Mr. Hudson is doing much for the good of the sport of racing in getting such as the following off the turf:

Gold Duke. Uncle James and Weberfields are the only horses among the number that were winners last year. Bery Waddell, which was bred by the late R. Bradley at Wilcox Landing in Virginia, is probably the most noted performer in the collection. He raced many times on the flat and through the field and was a winner of a considerable sum.

Sir Navarre is the brother in blood to Salvidere, and is the colt for which C. R. Ellison paid $9,000 as a yearling when the last crop from the late C. F. McMeekin's Oakwood Stud was offered in New York in September, 1906. Incidentally he is the colt for which Ellison wanted to claim the name Governor Hughes. The Jockey Club, for reasons of its own, advised Mr. Ellison that the name was not obtainable and Sir Navarre was taken as a substitute.

obtainable and Sir Navarre was taken as a substitute.

In his work at Memphis in the spring of 1907 Sir Navarre acquitted himself so creditably that he was heralded as a world-beater, but he went wrong and Ellison was never able to get him to the post. What a narrow escape for the distinguished chief executive of the State of New York, who is now exerting his every effort to put the greatest of outdoor sports under the ban.

C. B. Reid is another distinguished counterfeit in this collection. He was bred by John Morris at Woodburn Stud and was sold as a yearling to Louis A. Cella for $2,500. He was named for the trainer of that good horse The Picket, and made two appearances under the colors of the chief of the St. Louis racetrack confederacy—once last year and once this year— but was not in the money in either race.

Mr. Hudson says he is in the market for as many once this year— but was not in the money in either race.

Mr. Hudson says he is in the market for as many more of the kind as he can buy, and he will go to New Orleans next week to remain until the close of the season there on April 11, in the hope that he will be able to pick up another carload or two.

"There are plenty of horses at New Orleans that come up to my requirements for exportation," said he, "but they are hard to buy. One might think that owners would be glad to get rid of such horses at any price, but not so. They have an undefinable attachment for them, and I have had some men actually cry when they were selling their horses to me, and in more than one instance I have let them have the horses back."

HUGHES HAS TWO PROMISING COLTS.

Lexington, Ky., March 27.—Charley Hill and White Face are the names of the first two-year-olds to work a half-mile over the local track. They are both chestnut in color and stable mates in the string of S. K. Hughes, who bred them. Charley Hill is by Ingoldsby—Orlie and White Face is by Maddison—Ethel Simpson.

This morning Charley Hill worked a half in 50 and White Face in 49§ seconds on a fast track, but not at its best. The veteran breeder was all smiles after the colts had cooled out and acted as if he did not care how many youngsters of the Marse Abe kind come here for racing in April.

Instructive Analysis of the Merits of the Youngster Raced Over Southern Tracks.

Instructive Analysis of the Merits of the Youngsters Raced Over Southern Tracks.

New Orleans, La., March 26.—Now that the local racing season is nearing an end, it is possible to indicate with a good deal of accuracy the quality of the two-year-olds that have been developed here this winter. No really first-class ones have been brought out, but the showing has been a surprisingly good one, as more youngsters of the better class have gone to the post than in any other season. L. A. Cella's stable has far outclassed all others both in the number and the caliber of its juvenile material. Mr. Cella has started ten two-year-olds. Of these eight have been returned winners. The following of his youngsters earned brackets as stated: Marse Abe, 8 races, including the Carnival Stakes; Sea Swell, 5, including the Premier Stakes; Lady Leota, 1; Fore, 1; Irrigator, 1; She Wolf, 1; Arionette, 2, and linela, 1.

This is a most remarkable showing and one that was never before even apprenched here. The success of the Cella' two-year-olds is responsible for the fact that the St. Louis turfman now heads the list of winning owners with something like $23,000 to his credit. Marse Abe and Sea Swell are not only the best of the Cella lot that have started, but much the best of all the other juveniles that have earried colors on the local tracks this winter. The stable people say Sea Swell is the better of the path and the winter would pather to take a chance and the started properties of the cella to the third winter would pather to take a chance and the collection of the cella that the stake people say Sea Swell is the better of the path and the winter would pather to take a chance and the state of the cella that the stake people say sea Swell is the better of the path and the properties of the cella that the stake people say sea Swell is the better of the path and the properties of the cella tracks this winter. The stable people say Sea Swell is the better of the season. Mars Abe is of medium size, but he is a stout, well proporti her.

January 2—Shone—Burlew & O'Neill's chestnut gelding, by Shapfell—Onega. Beat another lot of green ones in a drive. Undersized and not much.

January 4—Anne McGee, bay filly, by Marta Santa—California. Led all the way and won in a drive from Holy Mass (Pinion). Roseburg II., Cunning, Brougham and others finished behind her. This is a small but very compact and well-built filly, with good depth through the shoulder. She ought to win up the line in ordinary company, but'does not fancy any kind of heavy going. Wants a fast track.

January 7—Alice—I. Cape's chestnut.

filly, with good depth through the shoulder. She ought to win up the line in ordinary company, but does not fancy any kind of heavy going. Wants a fast track.

January 7—Alice—J. Capo's chestnut filly, by Fatherless—Eostre. Beat Cunning in a drive by a head on heavy track. Arionette and Pinion best that finished behind her. Cunning would have won this race but for a weak finish. Only ordinary sort of filly.

January 9—Marse Abe—L. A. Cella's chestnut coll, by Yankee—Halo. Running green, won in a drive with Hammock Boy. Best colt shown here this winter. Is of medium size, but compact, and for what there is to him a race horse all over. Can carry weight and run in any kind of going. This is as useful a colt as was ever developed here and one that should win in any ordinary company on the eastern tracks at the early meetings. In fact, seasoned as he is, he ought to be a factor in any of his early starts in the east.

January 11—Marse Abe—Beat Irfaneh by a head in a drive in big field on heavy track. J. Lee rode and could have finished further off.

January 13—Arlonette—L. A. Cella's bay filly, by Cesarion—Fonsolette. Won easily from Pinion. Cunning and others. This is a filly of considerable substance and quality, one of the best that have raced here

January 14—Sea Swell—L. A. Cella's chestnut filly, by Oters—Dovecote. Beat a big field of ordinary ones easily. This is a well-built colt of considerable size and substance, and, next to Marse Abe, the best of the local lot.

January 16—Lady Leota—L. A. Celia's chestnut filly, by Voter—Dovecote. Beat a big field in a drive. This is a very fast filly, but of small size and light barrelled. Under feather weight she might win in fair company.

January 18—Marse Abe—Beat Anne McGee and big field in a drive, but again could have won by a comfortable margin had Lee so desired.

"CRICKET" KELLY DISABLED.

LITTLE RIDER HAS HIS FOOT CRUSHED IN THE LAST RACE AT OAKLAND.

Walter Miller in the First Race and Gypsy King in the Last Race the Only Winning Favorites -Downpatrick Scores for Ryan.

Oakland, Cal., March 27.—"Cricket" Kelly, the hero of Thursday's sensational bareback exploit on Wing Ting, was the victim of rough riding while piloting Cruzados in the last race at Oakland today and put out of commssion entirely with a crushed foot. According to the report of patrol judge Fred Mulholland, "Midget" Walsh, on Gypsy King, the favorite and ultimate winner, ran amuck and when passing St. Elmwood on the backstretch, the little daredevil jockey crowded the latter and forced Cruzados against the fence, disabling the aged sprinter's jockey and causing him to pull his mount up sharply to avoid going over the fence into the infield. From the grandstand it appeared as if Walter Miller, on St. Elmwood, was at fault. As a matter of fact, Miller would have landed the Spreekels horse in the first three at the finish but for the latter's evident tendency to bore into the rail all through the race.

The racing was marked by about the worst starting that has been seen here in a long time. Wap, in the third race, and J. R. Laughrey in the fifth, were two favorites left at the post that might have won with good starts.

For a card that lacked stake features, today's offering was excellent and produced racing which could not be excelled. The opening and closing races were captured by favorites in the betting, Walter Miller and Gypsy King. The intervening four races went to outsiders. There is only one conclusion possible in the case of Downpatrick's sudden awklening in the fourth race today and that is that T. H. Ryan's horse was not at his best in his two previous races.

W. W. Finn claimed St, Avon out of the third race for $1,325.

Al Morrissey, president of the Metropolitan Turf Benevolent Association, will leave for New York next Sunday, going via Los Angeles, where he will stop over for one day only.

DR. LEE FALLS WHEN FAR IN THE LEAD.

Successful Long Shots Add Spice to the Racing at Washington.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—Real fine, summer-like weather prevailed today, and all who could be were at the track to take advantage of the outdoor sport. The crowd was thoroughly representative of the best race-going citizenship of Washington, and with as fine weather tomorrow the grandstand and clubhouse will be taxed to their full capacity to accommodate the crowd which will come out to the track.

clubhouse will be taxed to their full capacity to accommodate the crowd which will come out to the track.

A capital card is programmed for decision tomorrow, including the Nursery Stakes, the Spring Handleap Steeplechase and the Potomac Purse Race, besides three dashes over the Columbia course.

The racing today furnished several close finishes and two distinct surprises, the successes of Park Row and Richmond Duke, which defeated the favorites in their respective races, with long odds quoted against their chances.

The defeat of Dr. Lee in the first race started the talent off badly on the day, and also was disastrous for jockeys T. Burns, W. Walsh and J. J. Walsh, who had miraculous escapes from death when their mounts, Dr. Lee, Comedienne and Kempton, fell in a cloud of dust at the head of the stretch. It was caused by Dr. Lee, which was leading by many lengths at the time, crossing his legs and falling, the others going over him. Neither riders nor horses were hurt. Firebrand was not caught in the mishap and coming on won easily.

John E. Madden saddled his second winner of the meeting in Court Lady, which won the maiden race for two-year-old fillies.

Goes Fast scored again in the third race by outgaining Woodlane in a rousing finish. The latter led to the stretch, where she tired and probably was not fit for a bruising race, as she is a sour-tempered filly, and refuses to work by herself and is likely to continue to be an unrellable proposition during the rest of the meeting.

Call Boy, running for the first time in the colors of his new owner, G. W. Langdon, was an evenomore favorite to win the fourth race. He was no match for Richmond Duke, the winner, but would have finished closer up but for swerving in the stretch.

money favorite to win the fourth race. He was no match for Richmond Duke, the winner, but would have finished closer up but for swerving in the stretch.

Samuel H. Harris was the second heavily backed favorite to finish second when Park Row outbroke and outpaced his opponents in the fifth race to win in a canter after losing several lengths on the stretch turn.

G. W. Langdon was not sufficiently disheartened with the defeat of Call Boy to permit his second starter, Animus, to go to the post except at less than even money. Langdon was not alone in backing his horse, as all the sharpshooters considered Animus the one to bring order out of chaos. They were disappointed, as Animus was unable to even keep within striking distance of the leaders and was tiring badly at the end. The finish between Campaigner and Killiecrankie was so close that many thought that Killiecrankie had won the race. Eighty layers of odds were in front of the grandstand today and a greater number will probably be on hand tomorrow afternoon to care for the wants of the holiday crowd.

MUTUEL MACHINES READY AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., March 27.—The eleven Parlmutuel machines which will be used during the Churchill Downs meeting have arrived from New York and are in perfect working order, having been thoroughly tested before being shipped. General manager Winn, President Charles F. Grainger and Judge C. F. Price, after spending a day at the track, have selected the positions for the machines. Two men will be in charge of each machine and four cashiers will be employed. Seven machines will be devoted to straight betting, two for second place and the other two for those who wish to speculate on their choice finishing third. It is estimated that 300 tickets will be sold by each machine. Combination auction pools will commence at 10 o'clock every race day.

The gentlemen's cup race, which is one of the annual fixtures at Churchill Downs, will carry with it this spring the handsomest cup ever awarded by the officials.

J. T. Combs, who is training his horses at Douglas Park, has two of the fastest two-year-olds at the track.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Pinion, favored by a clear course and showing the most speed, won all the way and finished easing up. Lillian Ray, also favored at the start by having a clear course, was in closest pursuit nearly all the way and finished gamely. Alice, forced to go wide most of the way, stood a hard drive gamely and outstayed Lustacian in the closing strides. The latter showed improvement, closed a big gap and ran a good race. She Wolf tired badly after showing speed for a quarter. The Slicker was in a jam most of the way. Little Mose had scant chance with the interference he was subjected to. After All had a rough trip. Winner—Br. g, by Sorcerer—Balance II. (trained by F. E. Brown).

Went to post at 3:50. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving.

Momentum, showing suddenly improved form and away fast, took a good lead at once and, under skillful riding, won all the way, but had to be shaken up near the end. Grimaldi was taken back in the early running and moved up fast in the stretch run but, under a weak ride, failed to get up. Charlie Eastman broke well and was close up all the way, but tired slightly in the final sixteenth. Ida May, from a poor beginning, ran a good race and would have been third in a few more strides. Yaddo ran well and would have been much closer up but for going wide on the turns. R. C. Rann ran poorly. The others were always beaten off.

Winner—B. f, by Rensselaer—Stately (trained by J. E. Madden).

Went to post at 3:31. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Court Lady closed an early gap quickly and was reserved to midway of the stretch, then came on fast and won going away. Aralia forced the early pace into a brief lead and hung on gamely after succumbing to the winner. Cheek closed a gap steadily into a fast going third. Chaperon is promising and showed the most early speed, but finally tired as if short. Bluestock ran well. Lucille R. was off poorly and pocketed.

Went to post at 4:31. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Richmond Duke dashed into the lead at once and set the pace all the way, but was tiring badly at the finish. Call Boy was outrun early and closed a big gap, but swerved badly in the final drive. Tamme showed a good turn of speed all the way, but tired near the end. Profusion, a bad actor, ran away when going to the post, but it had little effect on the result. Waterbridge ran fairly well. Tennis closed a big gap. William Penn showed early speed.

J. Witt, W. Griswell, B. Trovato. ORM OF NEW ORLEANS TWO-YEAR-OLDS. January 23—Brougham—Burlew & O'Neill's bay gelding, by Blues—Barouche. With best of weights, won by six lengths from Hammock Boy, with Servicence third. A well-built, good-looking colt. Well bred and should improve.

January 25—Anne McGeo—Carried 112 pounds, conceded weight to most of her competitors and beat fair band easily.

January 25—Anne McGeo—Carried 112 pounds, conceded weight to most of her competitors and beat fair band easily.

January 25—Anne McGeo—Carried 112 pounds, conceded weight to most of her competitors and casily. Sizable, good filly, and one of the best seen here. Looks like improving and might have winning chances at early eastern meetings.

January 28—Fete—Mrs. R. W. Walden's gray filly, by Faraday—Festa. Beat a poor lot of maidens easily. Does not call for much.

January 29—Fore—L. A. Cella's chestnut filly, by Cesarion—In Front. Carrying 110 pounds, won National Stakes in a drive from stable companion; Sea Swell, Elizabeth Harwood, Anne McGee, Brougham, Cunning and Gloriole finishing behind her. This is an evenly built, very shapely filly. Appeared to have trained off somewhat later, but is one that can win in pretty fair company.

January 30—Pinion—F. W. Seeley & Co.'s bay filly, by Buck Massie—Holy Bird. Beat fair band in canter. This is a very fast filly, but too small to be of much value in racing unless under light imposts. She is a useful sort at that.

January 31—Hammock Boy—C. T. Brownfield's chestnut colt, by Hammock—Sister Adeline. Beat fair band, winning from Craftsmam by a nose. This is a colt of size, range and substance; one of the three or four best shown here. He is good in any kind of going and is one that will win later on in moderate company.

February 1—Sea Swell—Beat good opponents easily on heavy track.

February 4—Prosper—E. W. Heffner's brown colt, by Plaudit—Penury. Won in canter from fair lot. This is a good colt, well built, and one that should be worth remembering. Should run well in heavy going as all the Plaudits perform well in the mud. February 5—Sea Swel Nadavis. Beat poor lot of manuens in a service.

Not much.
March 10—Tony W.—Beat a big band driving.
Tom Holland, second and Pinion, third.
March 11—Anne McGee—Beat Arionette in a drive, Alice, third.
March 12—Intervene—H. B. Duryea's bay gelding, by Hamburg—Intervention. Beat a big band, winning in a drive from Simcoe, Pocotaligo, third.
This was a good race, as Intervene met with much interference. This is a very fair youngster and worth remembering. (Continued from first page.)

March 9-After All-J. Casey's bay filly, by Indio-Nadavis. Beat poor lot of maidens in a drive.

ning in a drive from Sincoe, Focusta, with much interference. This is a very fair youngster and worth remembering.

March 13—Little Mose—C. T. Clark's chestnut colt, by St. Maxim—Eva Fay. Beat a big band, winning in a drive by a neck from Columbus. Only fair.

March 14—Intervene—Beat Arionette. Nigger Baby, Brougham, Roseburg II. and other fair ones, winning in a drive by a length. This was another good race, as Intervene got off poorly and had to work his way through and around his opponents.

March 16—Elizabeth Harwood—Beat Tony W., Silverton, Intervene and others, easily.

March 17—Gloriole—J. H. McCormick's chestnut filly, by Hastings—Glory. Beat a big band of ordinary ones easily. This is probably the best bred filly here, but so far has been a disappointment. She is a well built filly and may improve later on.

March 18—Elizabeth Harwood—115 pounds; won I Louislana Stakes in a drive by a length from her stable companion, Anne McGee, Brougham, third, I nez Sister, Fore and Snap finishing behind her. This was an unusually good, game race and about places Elizabeth Harwood at the top of the list of fillies that have raced here this winter.

S. B. Weems.
